Last Will and Testament of Duncan McDonald (Duncan Michael) of Lisnare No. 8.

I Duncan McDonald of Lisnare, Pictou County in the Province of Nova Scotia, make this my last Will and Testament.

1st I ordain and direct that my just and legal debts shall be paid out of my personal property herein bequeathed.

2^d I direct and ordain that my wife Mary shall have her comfortable living on the place, and the management of my personal property which she be capable of the same.

3^d When my sons Lauchlin and John Dan shall have between them acquired the property once owned by my brother Hugh, deceased, I ordain that they shall divide both properties, namely, my farm, and that once owned by my said deceased brother Hugh, by a straight line running about South and West through the center of both farms combined.
That Lauchlin shall have that half of the property so divided on which are located my present home that with all its barns houses and outhouses, and that John Dan shall have the other half of said property so divided, on which are located the house barn &c of said deceased brother Hugh.

4th I ordain and direct that my son Lauchlin shall own and possess those buildings namely my present house together with all its furniture my barns and outhouses which are located on his share of the property, but in the event of my son John Dan wishing to erect any buildings on his lot of the property, I ordain and direct that
